Consider It An Opportunity of Joy!

Regardless of what we face in life, consider it an opportunity of joy! I know you don't want to hear it, and I don't actually leap for joy either, but what many of us are facing is actually an opportunity. It is an opportunity to share with others that there is something greater on the inside that shines throughout the outside time and time again.

As many of you know, I reference James 1:2-3 in my messages, but it wasn't until recently that it came to life in me – a rhema word. Sure, I face trouble daily, wondering if my vision will improve, but until then, I consider it an opportunity of joy. An opportunity to share the message God has placed in me to touch others for Him!

The troubles we encounter in life are only a test of faith and it will produce patience and develop perseverance. Out of circumstances beyond our control are opportunities to share experiences that take us over the top and allow others to dance on that mountain top with us!

Let me encourage you to open your Bible to James 1:2-3 and read it again – for the first time. Open your hearts to receive a rhema word that will take your problem and turn it into an opportunity of joy!

"...rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory." (1 Peter 1:8)
