Shout of G L O R Y!

It was a crisp Texas morning as I stepped outside. I tilted my head back and hollered out "GLORY" as loud as I possibly could. It was one of those 'aah-ha' moments in my life that I needed to shout to my God. Although, I've shouted many of times before, this time was different, something on the inside of me just rose up and it's been a continuous battle rally cry ever since.

A shout will cause walls to fall, as it did at the battle of Jericho, and we need to shout every once in a while to bring some of the walls down in our lives. For me, a weekly shout out on Saturday mornings at men's prayer works. It starts off my morning off like "snap, crackle and pop!" does for others.

A shout can also influence or encourage others to shout and I know off hand that it happens. One particular time at an amusement park, while I was riding a roller coaster, I lifted my voice and shouted, "Someone ought to holler "GLORY!" It seemed as if everyone waiting in line for the ride, those riding it, the employees and those passing by all shouted! It was powerful! Even during a church service, a shout of glory touched others and they ended up shouting "GLORY" too!

Recently during a church service, our pastor during worship encouraged the congregation to shout, and of course. I was all for that shouting G L O R Y from the front row! It just breaks the monotony of life and awakes the spirit man inside of you for greater things to be done and pumps you up!

Don't you just wanted to do it now?

G L O R Y!

Unblind Me

February 15, 2011

"Uncle Whicky, do you know how you can get unblinded?" Little Barry tenderly and whole-heartedly inquired of me.

"No, but how?" I responded to see what he'd say next.

"Ask God and He will unblind you!" he said assuredly.

"Of course!" I replied.

"Let us pray right now!"

"God, unblind Uncle Whicky, let him see the grass and the flowers and let him see like me. Unblind him in the name of Jesus."

This word “unblind” struck me coming from the mouth of my 4 year old nephew, Barrington Young II. He said it with such clarity and assurance, believing in his heart it can happen.

I’m hanging on to these words as a constant reminder forever and proclaiming God to “unblind” me in the name of Jesus!

Who said kids don’t have faith? God can use you too, if you’d let him.

Be used by God today. Share the love of Christ with those around us and be “unblinded” to see how God sees.

Pray For Us

Please continue praying for us.

At this time we need your prayers for my second book, “Super Duper Cooper.” A literacy agent and/or publisher would be great to get out this children’s book about the best guide dog on earth!

Your prayers for On Top of My Mountain Ministry are sincerely appreciated in advancing the Kingdom.

If you have a prayer request, please e-mail to whick@att.net. We’ll be in agreement for God to answer your every need!

Thank You!
